Items of Interest Picked Up By ARGUS
Reporters in Holbrook and Vicinity.

C. H. Brown, the sheepman, is in Holbrook for supplies for his different camps.

George Dummick, from Joseph City, was in Holbrook Friday visiting old friends.

Claim Agent Elstun, of the Santa Fe, was in Holbrook Saturday on official business.

Mrs. E. Bargman and Mrs. John Nelson were Holbrook visitors during the week.

Probate Judge Ruiz, of Apache County, was in Holbrook on business during the past week.

The ranchers of St. Joseph are still bringing in fine large water-melons which meet with a ready sale.

Capt. Warren and Mrs. Warren, from Joseph City, paid Holbrook a short visit the later part of last week.

S. D. Woolsey and Mrs. Woolsey passed through Holbrook Friday en route to their home at Fort Apache.

John Sharp and Hamp Blevins have gone to Flagstaff to work on the cattle round-up for Babbitt Brothers.

The dance at Wetzler's Hall last Friday evening was largely attended. A pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

Wallace Larson returned from his vacation Wednesday and resumed his old place as night operator for the railroad.

Mrs. Alice Roosevelt Longworth passed through Holbrook Thursday morning. Mr. Longworth was no more in evidence here than he is at any other place.

W. H. Clark received a carload of Kansas wild hay the past week. He claims this grade of hay is better than alfalfa.

Doctor Lowe was called during the week to Adamana to attend the sick baby of Lee Newman. The child is now out of danger.

Mr. H. J. Ramer was in town last week getting supplies for the round-up. Joe Knight went out with Mr. Ramer to help gather in the cattle.

Claud Youngblood is in from Snowflake getting supplies for his new barber shop and confectionery store that he is building at that place.

Sheriff Woods gladdened the hearts of the good voters of Winslow last week by going down there and collecting the poll tax which is now due.

Stockman Fiege has been here several days with a view of bringing in a large shipment of his standard Herefords from his ranch near Douglas.

The ranchers at Woodruff have just finished threshing. The complete returns show six thousand bushels raised, an average of a little over fifty bushels to the acre.

Andy Boyer made a flying trip to Flagstaff last week to select lumber and other building material for E. Willan and Dick Grigsby, who are each building a new home.

News comes from Concho that the fifteen year old daughter of D. Ortega died of typhoid fever last Monday night. The unfortunate girl had been sick for some time and far away from medical attendance.

The round-up outfit of Frank Wallace, Bud Howell and James Donahue is working the country around Woodruff. The cowboys report cattle in fine shape and feed best for years.

C. Hess, of the firm of Hess and Houck, returned from the sheep camp Saturday. He reports everything in fine shape and further states that John Nelson has the prize lambs for this section of the county.

Bert Porter, of Springerville, brought a large bunch of cattle to Holbrook Saturday, which he disposed of to Fenton Jones. Mr. Jones will ship the cattle to Tempe where they will be fattened for beef the coming winter.

Major Wales, the new army surgeon at Fort Apache, had his automobile shipped to him last week. It is said that when an Apache Indian first sees the new "devil wagon" of the white man he looks around him for a good place to have a fit.

Dr. Hathaway, of Winslow, was called to Holbrook last week to consult with Dr. Lowe in the case of Dr. Parks. The consulting physicians consider the condition of Dr. Parks to be very serious, and hold out no hopes for his immediate recovery.

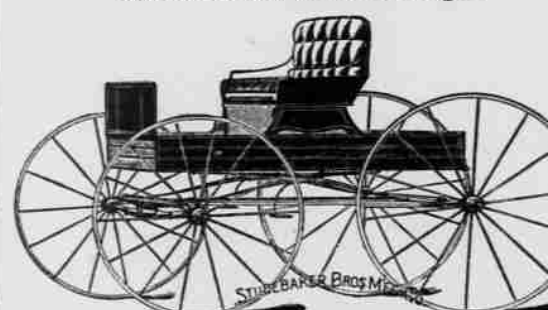

Clarence Owen, territorial sheep inspector, together with Mr. Nelson, for the government, is making a herd to herd inspection of all the sheep in Navajo and Apache counties. They report sheep very clean and free from scab, having so far discovered but one bunch that will have to be dipped.

"Red" Smith, one of the blackest negroes in Winslow, got into a dispute with his beloved mother-in-law and got shot up a whole lot. Sheriff Woods brought the "handy woman with a gun" and her husband and lodged them in the county jail to await the action of the grand jury. Still there are some people who say a mother-in-law is no good in a community.
